

Are you interested in a career in Dutch Research and Academia?

Register now and get your interviews on October 3rd at the Business Design Center! We are happy to meet you at the Dutch Interview Room in the Auditorium Room E.

At the Nature Careers Expo you'll get the chance to have one-on-one interviews with Dutch professors or university recruiters! This is your opportunity to talk with your possible future Dutch employer about your research ideas. Looking for a PhD, postdoc or assistant professor position in the Netherlands? Take your chance, register and plan your 20 minutes' personal interview now!

Dutch Research Universities at the Expo:

The following Dutch research universities will be present at the Nature Careers Expo.

- Eindhoven University of Technology. Check out current jobs
- University of Groningen. Check out current jobs
- Utrecht University. Check out current jobs
- VU Amsterdam. Check out current jobs

You can meet them at the Expo Gallery Hall, stands 13-16, and/or you can apply for a 20-minute personal interview in advance. Curious which professors will be there and for which scientific fields they are looking for candidates? Register and Check it out!

Why proceed your career in the Netherlands?

- Excellent research: all Dutch universities are among the top 200 of universities worldwide.
- The Netherlands ranks 2nd worldwide in publications per researcher.
- A broad variety of research subjects.
- Best non-native English speaking country.
- Great place to live.

Other research jobs in the Netherlands

If you are looking for research related positions at the other institutions in the Netherlands, AcademicTransfer can help you! AcademicTransfer is the job board for a career in research and higher education in the Netherlands; for every academic, at every stage in their career and in every sector. On AcademicTransfer, you'll find a complete overview of academic job openings.

More information about AcademicTransfer and the current available jobs:

www.academictransfer.com/nature

More information about the Netherlands in general:

www.factcards.nl

Looking forward to meeting you at the Nature Careers Expo!